'Mystery' Illness Hits 154 Colma Kids

"Still unsolved" was the status today as county health officials continued to probe the cause of an epidemic-like outbreak of stomach illness for 154 students at Colma intermediate school last Wednesday.

Dr. James Roney and aides from the county were called into the case Thursday after mass absences prompted principal Dr. Bernard Gerdes to notify district officials.

No hospital trips resulted from the "mysterious" malady, according to Superintendent H. Z. Weibel. Most of the students became so ill, however, that many of them were kept home even on Friday. Gerdes said attendance was about back to normal Monday.

Was It Meal?

The hot meal served in the Colma cafeteria at noon Wednesday apparently was the hub of the trouble. As yet, though, county technicians have not determined their findings.

Dr. Roney, wishing to calm down parents, termed the incident "a one-shot deal." He was reported as saying that the sicknesses probably were caused by a combination of food spoilage and germ infection.

Early reports on cafeteria equipment and the food served that day, however, failed to provide an answer. And strangely, a check on students made by Gerdes deepened the mystery.

Gerdes found that 36 of the 154 stricken students did not eat the hot noon meal on April 3. And 169 (69 in the seventh and 100 in the eighth grade) ate the meal and didn't come down sick! Thus the cause for apprehension.

Now Normal

Pending outcome of a series of tests, including stool specimens, Dr. Roney pronounced the cafeteria "okay" after thorough inspection.

As a precaution, Weibel and Mrs. Helen Delafield, district health coordinator, changed the time for the hot water rinse in the cafeteria dishwasher to 30 seconds, instead of the machine-set 12 seconds. The county milk inspector, meanwhile, said everything in the cafeteria appeared to be in good order as far as his department was concerned.

The many tests under way include analysis of mayonnaise and frozen hamburger, used for the meal last week.

Mrs. Sanford Vickers, cafeteria manager, referred preliminary inquiries by the press to district authorities as she declined to make "official" comment.

Teacher To Fight Ouster For 'Immoral Conduct'

William P. Bell, 34-year-old seventh grade teacher at Colma school, was suspended from duty Wednesday by the Jefferson Elementary School district in a charge of "immoral conduct."

A board resolution ordered suspension of Bell and subsequent dismissal in 30 days if the teacher did not demand a public hearing before that time.

Bell said today he would fight the dismissal in court.

Two Resolutions

Trustees passed two resolutions, one ordering the suspension and a second listing "unprofessional conduct" charges under the education code. The second resolution was not made public. Superintendent H. Z. Weibel said the charges would not be divulged unless Bell appealed his discharge.

Prior to the regular board meeting which started 40 minutes late at 8:40 p.m., the board conferred for more than one hour behind locked doors on the Bell issue.

According to the agenda the pre-meet session was to consider "staff organization" with Dr. William O'Dell of Stanford.

Two Arrests

Bell, a teacher in this district for three years, has not taught since January 31, after trustees were informed of his two arrests on misdemeanor morals charges.

WILLIAM BELL
... To Fight Dismissal

Both charges, one in San Francisco and an earlier count in Kansas City, were dismissed.

Earlier this year the state cancelled Bell's teaching credentials, later reinstating them after explaining to the teacher that their records erroneously showed he was convicted of the charges.

During the time his credentials were not valid, the local district hired a teacher replacement for Bell and he has not returned to classroom work.

Research Work

He has been assigned to research duties at the district office and more recently in the field service office at University of California.

His suspension from duty was scheduled to take effect upon his receipt of the board's resolution.

Should Bell demand a hearing, it would not be held before mid-May, in which case the matter would probably not be completed before the end of the school year. Even if Bell is re-instated, he would still not be re-hired for the coming school year since he does not have tenure. The district can

'Compromise' Teachers Pay Voted

Jefferson Elementary School district teachers won a "compromise" salary schedule revision Wednesday that will mean a minimum increase of $210 per year for the district's 166 certified employees.

The salary schedule submitted by Otha Kinsey of Jefferson Classroom Teachers association was approved, 4-1, after two "compromise" revisions.

Teachers proposal to make a bachelor of arts degree plus 60 units equivalent to a master of arts degree plus 15, allowing the former to reach the top salary step of $7350, was eliminated.

The teachers request to mail the general elementary credentials, eliminated in 1934, the equivalent of an a.b., was also dropped. G. E. teachers will be allowed to advance to the fourth step, with 60 extra units, instead of being frozen at the third level.

Trustee Michael Callan voted against the new schedule, declaring that in one bracket a teacher with one more year experience would be getting $30 less than her junior in teaching.

Majority argued that this was only a single instance and that it was a penalty for first-step teachers who failed to advance themselves through obtaining more units.

The new schedule grants automatic annual increments of $210 instead of $200.

The salary raises will cost between $65,000 and $70,000 for the next school year at the present figure of 166 teachers. It is expected that 22 more certified personnel will be hired for next year. Total teaching budget, $869,000 this year, is expected to hit $1,000,000.

The schedule raises the minimum starting salary from $4000 to $4200, thereby increasing subsequent steps proportionately.

According to board sentiment, the new schedule will encourage academic advancement of teachers and will penalize those teachers who remain in the a.b. or g.e. class without adding units. In this category under the new schedule the annual automatic yearly increment will advance through the fourth year to a top of $4830, after which a teacher is "frozen" unless he undertakes more study.

"DOGGONIT, I ain't done nutin' wrong," whimpered the poor puppy Friday when Lt. Roy Beecher and Officer Jim Welsh became puzzled as what charge they'd use to "book" the canine caper artist. The fluffy one was right, too. Seems his new owner in Westlake couldn't keep him 'cause of apartment restrictions. So, the gendarmes came to the rescue. A few minutes later, Poundmaster Charles Maschinot found a good home for the cutie. And, it was just in a day's work for Daly City's police corps.

All Exams Cancelled By Council

Civil service exams for police and fire captain positions were cancelled by the city council Monday night in a tempestuous session over what were described as the personnel board's "vest pocket" agreements.

Prior to cancelling all pend- examinations in a 3-2 split vote, the council ordered a special session with the personnel board for next Wednesday to go over all existing rules and regulations.

Councilmen Micheal De Bernardi, Del Wilson and Sanford Vickers voted for delaying the exams. Councilman Paul Hupf, who along with Mayor Joseph Verducci opposed the "unnecessary" delay, told the majority trio, "you don't know what you're talking about."

Innocent Start

The vigorous debate started innocently enough when De Bernardi asked that the council table action on acceptance of duty statements for seven routine city positions pending a meeting with the personnel board to "discuss the whole matter."

Vickers then urged that the meeting be held "immediately," asserting that some of the personnel board rulings were "vest pocket agreements." Vickers said, "I don't understand where they get some of these rules."

De Bernardi, noting that the personnel board was in the process of re-writing outmoded civil service rules and regulations, maintained that the council should interpret its policies to the board before the revisions are made.

"Shouldn't Set Policy"

Verducci warned, however, that, "We have to be careful of protocol. We shouldn't set policy for the personnel board.

De Bernardi said the duty

Morgan Opposes Move To Weaken Brown Act

Despite opposition from at least two board members, Superintendent Edward D. Morgan of Jefferson Union High School district Monday night went on record against an amendment which would broaden the "secret-meeting" Brown Act.

Morgan announced his stand in a reply letter to Assemblyman Louis Francis of San Mateo, co-sponsor of the controversial state amendment. Specifically, Morgan informed the legislator that he (the superintendent) is opposed to closed meetings on settlement of claims and property matters.

The amendment, authored by Francis and Assemblyman Carl Britschgi of the 26th District, asks that all matters concerning claims and property acquisitions, as well as preliminary reports from administrative officers, be restricted to executive or "closed-to-the-public" meetings.

One Restriction

The Brown Act, as now stands, limits closed meetings to personnel matters ONLY. It has been subject to varied interpretation throughout the state.

Morgan's proclamation was in direct contrast to the San Mateo County School Boards association stand on the subject, and also the opposite of the Jefferson Elementary board of trustees. The latter group in November by 3-1 vote passed a resolution barring the press from all meetings involving land acquisitions and site negotiations. Their action, allegedly based on the advice of District Attorney Keith Sorenson, has caused considerable unrest throughout the district.

Morgan, in presenting his letter to trustees Monday, reminded that he acted as an in-

Deadline to file for trustee is next Wednesday, but two other important deadlines may have relegated the school board race to a back seat.

Gang Fight Averted At Restaurant

A gang fight between two "hot rod" clubs was averted Tuesday night as seven police patrol cars converged on a local drive-in before fists started flying.

Police from Broadmoor and Daly City responded to the Colonial Drive-In on Junipero Serra after the manager reported that a South San Francisco gang was "trying to pick a fight" with the Daly City Klutch Kings club. About 30 youths were involved.

According to police, the "Outlaws," a South San Francisco hot-rod club, challenged the Klutch Kings members, reportedly because of an incident at an out-of-town dance last weekend.

According to bystanders, the Klutch Kings, well-known for their road courtesy, attempted to avert any fight. They had gathered at the restaurant for coffee.

Police, pouring from seven squad cars on the scene, rousted the South San Francisco bunch, who were "really surprised," as one officer put it. "Police came swarming out of everywhere."

Gas Allowances, Stites Expenses Held Up For Study

Payment of gas allowances for two city employees and expenses for City Manager Howard Stites were held up by the council Monday night for further study, on recommendation of the finance committee.

Finance committeemen Micheal De Bernardi and Paul Hupf at first questioned the payment of flat $25 gas allowances to city purchaser Robert Evans and recreation supervisor Bob Liebe, pointing out that reimbursement has always been on a mileage basis.

Stites said that the flat $25 was actually under what the amounts would be under a mileage basis and claimed the employees paid the extra expense out of their own pocket.

High School Board Race Gains Interest As Deadline Nears

Seats on the Jefferson Elementary and Laguna Salada Elementary school boards still only had one aspirant apiece as of press time yesterday, but the Jefferson High School district race picked up interest, as two more candidates filed for the two positions. Filing deadline is next Wednesday.

Joining Incumbent Raymond Whitney and contractor William Larsen in the high school vote battle this week were Incumbent Lyal Ingersoil and Sterling Park Homeowners president Thomas Noonan, an unsuccessful candidate for the single Jefferson elementary contest, while Rockaway Beach housewife Dorothy Edminister is all alone for the one berth on Laguna Salada's board.

Postal 'Axe' To Fall Here

Drastic curtailment in Daly City post office service and possible staff cuts of from two to three employees were announced today by Postmaster Vince Murphy in the face of a federal post office fund deficiency.

Effective Saturday, local post offices will be closed on weekends, except for box holders, and there will be no carrier delivery or window service on Saturdays.

As of Monday, window service in Daly City stations will be cut from 11 to 8½ hours per day. Service will be from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., with the exception of money order and postal savings business, which will close at 5 p.m.

Murphy said "we're doing everything possible to arrange our work schedule but it looks like we may have to cut two or three temporary carriers." The reduced service would be in effect until June 30, end of the fiscal year.

Cut Third Class

Under Postmaster Arthur Summerfield's directive, third class mail service will be virtually eliminated.

Murphy said almost 50 per cent of the local post office's volume is for third class mail, pointing out that 1,400,000 pieces of incoming letter-size material is handled weekly, 200,000 pieces of large size incoming literature. In addition, the office processes 40,000 pieces of outgoing third class material of letter sizes, 32,000 pieces of outgoing in the flats, or larger size.

"The third class is our bread and butter," Murphy said, but declared, "these curtailments of service are dependent on whether or not funds are made available to the department." Postmaster Arthur Summerfield ordered the nation-wide service cutback because of a $47,000,000 shortage which he is asking Congress to allocate.

May Forestall

Murphy said the Congress might grant an eleventh hour approval of the funds but he indicated the announcement would not come before Friday night.

The local postmaster said that the curtailment of service would not affect the scheduled May 1 opening of the Westlake branch nor the staffing of the station. Should the federal funds be withheld, the same curtailed service will be in force in Westlake, however.

Murphy said two temporary employees were cut from the department a month ago in anticipation of the fund shortage. Three more carriers may be cut to stay within Summerfield's slashed budget.

Cuts in money order business will be announced shortly in event of Congress' refusal to appropriate funds, Murphy concluded.

Westlake Woman Wins JESD Trustee Berth

Mrs. John (Doris) Wimberly, 35-year-old Westlake housewife, was named to the Jefferson Elementary School district board of trustees Wednesday.

Her appointment to fill vacancy created by resignation of Henry Kraus was made by the San Mateo county board of education, on recommendation of a local citizens selections committee.

Mrs. Wimberly was first choice of three persons nominated by the citizens selections group.

Her husband is district manager for a paper business form company in San Francisco. The couple, who live at 892 North Mayfair, has two children, Paul, 4, and Ann, 2.

A resident of Daly City for three years, Mrs. Wimberly is active in the League of Women Voters, having acted as the local group's co-chairman on a two-year study of finance and administrative structure of California schools.

FREEWAY ROLE FOR DALY CITY 'UNDETERMINED'

Junipero Serra freeway, a $50 to $80 million link between San Francisco and San Jose, was unveiled by the division of highways last week, but Daly City's portion of the project was still a matter of conjecture.

Maps released by the state highway department showed two alternate routes for the new freeway at points starting just south of Daly City.

Awaiting more specific information are owners of Daly City's 65 businesses on Junipero Serra, who may be drastically affected when the four-lane boulevard is widened to six-lane freeway status.

The state will take 17 feet off either the east or west side of the boulevard to complete the widening. Property owners are also anxious to determine

City Starts Charter Rule Study

A "full study" on charter government was called for Monday night by Councilman Sanford Vickers.

Vickers said that a study should be made and a public hearing held on the findings.

"It's gaining momentum," he declared, "and I think we should take steps one way or another."

City Manager Howard Stites said he would obtain copies of a model charter to submit to the council.

Councilman Paul Hupf inquired, "Should the purpose of a charter be to draft government for our own use or copy some other city?"

Vickers said all questions could be answered at a meeting after the council had examined charter operation in other cities.

Better Government

Charter government, or "home rule," has been proposed editorially by THE RECORD as offering a better type of government which can be adapted to the needs of the community and the citizens' wishes.

Local organizations have expressed interest in investigating the pros and cons of this type of government, which has been adopted by 66 California cities. Under charter rule, a city drafts a document to gov-statements which he wished to hold up were correct, but declared, "there's a couple of the jobs I don't think the city needs."

Verducci suggested the council "pinpoint" specific matters it wished to discus with the board for "economy of time." Vickers retorted, "The employees morale is at stake. I want to go into this thoroughly."

"I agree," said the mayor, "but we can't start from scratch."

Hotter Tempo

The personnel situation flared up again at a hotter tempo when Fireman George De Bono arose to ask the council why he and two other firemen would not be automatically placed on the eligibility list for the new position of fire captain.

Title Snafu

De Bono and two other department members passed examination for fire captain two years ago, but title of that position has since been changed to battalion chief and captain has been made an inferior position. The three firemen seek to be placed on the new captain's list because several openings will be available in the near future for that post, but additional battalion chiefs may not be added for several years.

The personnel board last week ruled that the three firemen would have to take examination for the captain job.

City Manager Howard Stites told the council, "The new position of captain is not the same as the job these men took the exam for. They must file application and take the exam for the new job."

"But," rejoined De Bernardi, "If they're qualified enough to take the old captain's exam, they should be qualified for a lower position."

Vickers said De Bono had already passed the examination once and "he's one of the most qualified men in the department."

De Bernardi then moved to cancel all upcoming promotional civil service examinations until outcome of next week's session with the personnel board.

"Confuse & Delay"

Hupf branded such action, "entirely unnecessary . . . it will merely confuse and delay. Why aren't all the other city employees up here if the rules are all fouled up?"

Vickers declared that city employees "are afraid to face the council."

Hupf retorted: "Every issue is going to disappoint some people. I dislike this approach to cancel everything when there's no good reason for it. You don't even know what you're talking about."

In the roll call vote, the examinations were ordered cancelled.

May Not Delay

Should councilmen iron out difficulties with the personnel board next Wednesday, however, the two exams affected could still proceed as scheduled. Fire captain exam is slated April 22, while the police captain exam is scheduled for April 19.

Neighboring cities have also made overtures to enter a joint study with Daly City on the proposed adoption of charter government.

terminate services of a probationary teacher without giving cause.

Asks CTA Support

Bell said he would try to enlist support of the California Teachers association to fight the dismissal.

Harry Fosdick, secretary to the CTA's personnel standards committee, said that it was "unusual for the district to attempt a legal dismissal procedure this late in the school year. It can't possibly get to court before the school year is over."

Fosdick said his organization would give Bell advisory services, but pointed out that CTA did not provide legal counsel for individual teachers unless it was a "precedent" matter affecting all teachers.

Unless Bell wins re-instatement, he will not be paid his salary for the remainder of the school year, effective from time of his suspension. The year ends in June, meaning about $1000 is involved.

Panel Would Study

Fosdick revealed that should Bell or the district request, his group would designate a panel to study all charges and prepare a report which could be submitted for court evidence.

Bell said that, "There's not much I can do now except fight this and let the people in the district know what goes on." He acknowledged that even if he won his appeal, he would probably not return to classroom teaching in the district, although he would restore his salary for the remainder of the year.

dividual and did not present the opinion of the board.

Two Differ

Trustees Donald Miller of the Coastside and Elio Fontana told Morgan they did not share his stand on the amendments. Neither gave reasons. Board chairman Lyal Ingersoll and clerk Mrs. Anna Eason made no comment. Trustee Raymond Whitney, also of the Coastside, was not present for the meeting.

Morgan was extremely frank and objective in his letter to Francis.

It read:

"I have limited experience pertaining to the settlement of claims and acquisition of property. From this experience, however, I have come to the conclusion that regardless of how handled it does not take long for the matter to become PUBLIC PROPERTY.

"It is my personal feeling that these matters should in all probability BE DISCUSSED IN OPEN MEETINGS.

Legal Course

"In the settlement of claims, almost without exception, this is a matter which is handled by insurance companies. In appraising and acquiring property, if the owner does not care to accept the offer, school districts and, I believe, all other legislative bodies, have the right and duty to turn to those sections of the law which pertain to condemnation.

"I particularly like that portion of your letter to Mr. Harold Bradshaw of Marchbanks Publications in which you state that you have full confidence in the representatives of the press and would be perfectly willing to invite said representatives to attend such conferences. It has been my experience that our newspapers are more than fair when they are in possession of ALL the facts.

"It is my firm belief that the Brown Act should apply to 'all.'

Timely Instance

Morgan's interpretation of what are legal public matters came to light in another matter of board business Monday.

When the superintendent asked the board's approval to expel a Westmoor student due to repeated delinquencies, Miller immediately challenged the legality of the move.

"How can we (board) make a decision in public on the moral and mental status of this youth," he asked.

Morgan, a stickler for exactness, answered that he had checked the matter with deputy district attorney Lyle Edson.

"Edson informed me that we can't consider this in executive (closed) session. Students are not considered personnel, and you will recall that the Brown Act limits closed meetings to personnel matters."

Miller then moved that the discussion be stopped, saying, "I have complete confidence in the administration and we should accept the recommendation." The motion was unanimous.

Fontana indicated that in such cases "we want to know all the circumstances." Ingersoll, after hearing a report from Principal Glenn South, replied, "The facts seem to be well established. We've had no previous instances like this."

Planners Grant Delay On Basin School Site

Planners granted another "stay" to the Jefferson Elementary School district Tuesday as they postponed Henry Doelger's application for a subdivision in the 17-acre Westlake basin site. The district is anxious to secure the property for a school site.

Actually, the request for delay came from Carl Timmons, a representative of the Doelger firm, who said both parties needed more time to negotiate.

The land is reportedly worth $25,000 an acre, which would mean a lump cost of $425,000 to the district.

Up to now there have been no formal negotiations, since Doelger just returned from a yacht cruise Tuesday night.

Timmons said that appraisers are preparing a report for the Doelger firm on value of the land and that with Doelger back, a meeting would probably be called immediately.

The school district has already secured an appraisal, but has not released the figure-per-acre submitted.

Consider May 14

The basin site property, which Doelger seeks to subdivide for an exclusive residential development, will not be considered again by the planning commission until the May 14 meeting. Earlier the planners withheld action on Doelger's tentative map at request of the school district.

Michael Callan's request to eliminate 15-foot setback requirements for his proposed apartment house development on Sullivan avenue between 89th and 90th won commission approval.

Callan will not be required to leave any setback between the apartments and the sidewalk.

Commercial zoning was approved for a portion of Parcel 3-A in the Schenone tract, after the elementary school district indicated it did not need this section for the Margaret Pauline Brown school site. The commercial status was approved for land 10 feet west from the Schenone greenhouses to Sullivan avenue. Zoning on Parcel 3, Zanone property, and remainder of 3-A was held over until June 11 to give the school district more time to determine its needs.

Narrow Street

Romolo Blasi's petition to secure commercial zoning adjacent to his grocery store at 499 Bellevue in a residential section was postponed after residents of the area pointed out that nearby Acton street would be too narrow to handle additional traffic created by the enlarged enterprise. Blasi plans to enlarge the store and build apartments on the second floor of the proposed new structure.

Public hearings were set for May 14 on the following petitions: Joseph Sarto's request for commercial zoning on two lots adjacent to Villa Sanitorium on Vale avenue. He is asking the zoning to allow expansion of the rest home; Henry Doelger's application to establish commercial zoning in parcels 1 through 4 in Westlake Unit 9.

Setting of hearing date for Sam Yonan's variance request was postponed. Yonan, 196 Irvington, seeks to store concrete plastering equipment in his basement.

No action was taken on letter from Theodore V. Tronoff regarding exchange of Westmoor site property between Doelger and the Jefferson High school district.

The manager said $25 a month was not adequate compensation for the amount of travel the two employees did.

Mayor Joseph Verducci held, however, that a flat fee was better than a mileage formula, "because otherwise before you know it these things go up to $60 and $70 a month."

Council also held up until next meeting the payment of $75.65 to Stites for expenses on a trip to Sacramento, since there was no itemized statement with the voucher.

Stites said he had submitted the report to the finance director and that it should have been on file in time for the meeting.

City Manager Howard Stites, who attended the unveiling Thursday with officials from 28 other Peninsula communities, indicated to the council Monday that the city was still pretty much in the dark.

"They told me there would be a divided freeway within Daly City," Stites said, "but when I asked them which side of Junipero Serra boulevard they would acquire, they said the 'unimproved' side."

Stites said he understood this to mean that the state would appraise both sides of Junipero Serra and take over the side which would prove least expensive to acquire.

More Information

Councilman Paul Hupf won approval of his suggestion "to get more information as soon as possible." Stites was instructed to demand a public hearing on the issue here if necessary.

Dieter, 178 Rio Verde street, and Sarah Torres, 211 Rio Verde, last Friday filed two claims totaling $60,000 against the fifth grade teacher, Mrs. Anna L. Baer. Each asked $30,000 in damages for the alleged brutality.

Ampelio Torres said his daughter suffered a "painful injury" to her right arm by Mrs. Baer on February 25. Mrs. Eula Mae Kyrk, Lanette's mother, claims her girl was struck by Mrs. Baer on March 7.

Indicating that the school board had turned the case over to the district's insurance company for a court battle, Mrs. Lipman reasserted her stand:

"The claims are completely erroneous. Mrs. Baer has an outstanding record. A statement made by a daily newspaper that Mrs. Baer previously had inflicted corporal punishment on pupils has no foundation."

Mrs. Lipman said Mrs. Baer is "not only a fine teacher, but an upstanding mother." The teacher has three children of her own.

Also named in the damage claims were Bayshore principal Dorothy M. Fitzgerald, San Mateo county, superintendent Lipman, and the board of trustees.

Remember these young-looking women? Each appeared in recent P. G. and E. advertisements which made the point that women certainly look younger than their years these days!

Of course there are many reasons for this, but one big one is modern household appliances: They've taken over most of the heavy chores that used to age women long before their time.

Frankly, we're proud of the part our company plays in all this: With P. G. and E.'s low rates for gas and electricity, you can run a houseful of appliances all day for about half the price of a lipstick!

WATER MAINS were tied into a temporary 35,000 gallon wooden tank in Westlake early Wednesday, interrupting service for about one hour, according to Engineer Cyril Weiler. The temporary tank will provide water service to Westlake while 1,600,000 gallon reservoir nearby, cracked in the March 22 earthquake, is being drained and repaired. Drainage was scheduled to start Wednesday, after connection of mains to the temporary tank. Weiler said residents should receive normal water service while $5000 repair job is in progress.

INCOME FOR U. S., OUTGO FOR YOU

Daly City residents will have joined other Americans to contribute a record $38½ billions in personal income taxes by the time the deadline falls due Monday at midnight.

This means more than $100 millions a day for every day of the year, and figures at about $770 for every household in the land. The income tax total is exactly double the figure for 1945, the peak tax year during World War II.

The federal government does not, however, have an exclusive on ballooning budgets and taxes.

In every phase of governmental activity from Uncle Sam's 48 down through the states, counties, cities and taxing districts the pattern of costs and collections is consistently onward and upward. In this gravity-defying funnel process, the man at the bottom, and narrowest end, obviously gets the squeeze. Everything flows upward, and the higher in the governmental metaphor you get the wider the funnel . . . the more the cost.

In the local picture, government continues to grow bigger, more costly. In fact, it has been accelerating at a faster rate than federal spending, although the figures aren't quite so awesome.

Four years ago Daly City operated on a $659,670 budget, as compared with this year's $1,200,000, almost double.

San Mateo county's costs have mushroomed at an equal, if not faster pace.

School districts are spending funds in such huge chunks that the figures would have prompted immediate disbelief if predicted four or five years ago.

The de-valuated dollar is of course an important consideration when viewing the alarming tax total that government of and by the people is taking from the people.

And partially balancing the staggering burden is the fact that the country is experiencing a record prosperity.

But the public isn't swallowing the mammoth costs with these pills.

Many are joining the ever-increasing trend to reduce governmental spending on all levels.

We, of course, can best do the whittling job here in our own community through city, school and county government.

But that does not mean the more remote task of tempering state and federal spending should be left solely to Congressional discretion.

We are the bottom end of the funnel, from whence the pennies, nickels, dimes and dollars flow upward.

The axiom that "what goes up must come down" may not apply to governmental spending, but each individual citizen can help to minimize extravagancies by cutting the supply off at its source.

But don't interpret this literally next Monday, without first consulting a good attorney.

Just join the millions of other United States citizens whose collective voice against Big Government and Big Spending is beginning to command attention in the halls of government throughout the land.

'Old West' To Revive In W'lake

When Vincent Murphy, Daly City's postmaster, hands over the special pouch to Bill Zappentini, operator of the Mar Vista Stables, the old West will live again May 1.

The revival of the Wells Fargo mail and express run will start the festivities for the dedication of the new Westlake station of the Daly City post office and will be a special cachet cancellation of interest to philatelists all over the country.

In addition to the mail, which will terminate when Postmaster John F. Fixa of San Francisco accepts the pouch, a special shipment of money is slated to travel on the stage coach from the Westlake branch, Bank of America, to the San Francisco main post office at Seventh and Mission streets.

The stage coach, slated to travel through the streets of Daly City and San Francisco on its way to the terminus, will carry all the color of the old West, complete with costumed riders and a full complement of outriders and guards. Guarded by a "messenger," Zappetini will wheel the ancient vehicle through the two cities in the same fashion the Wells Fargo coaches operated in the early 1850s.

Just one of the phases of the dedication ceremonies, the mail and money run will start the fete. The Twelfth District band is to be on hand at the 2 p.m. ceremonies, while the Navy color guard will hoist the flag over the postoffice.

"Masked Burglar" Faces 7-Year Term

Broadmoor's "masked burglar" William Golden faces a possible seven years in San Quentin, after changing his plea to guilty in superior court Monday, where he was scheduled to appear for jury trial.

Charged with first degree burglary and assault with a deadly weapon, Golden, an ex-convict, changed his plea to guilty to attempted burglary.

District attorney's office reportedly accepted the plea on the lesser count on the stipulation that Golden would be sentenced to at least seven years in the state penetentiary. He will appear for sentence in three weeks.

Golden was arrested January 2 at a Broadmoor home, garbed in a mask and brandishing a butcher knife. He denied charges that he had bound and gagged two baby sitters in earlier burglary attempts.

Council Studies Traffic Safety, OK's Stop Signs

Boulevard stops for the dangerous 87th street and Southgate avenue intersection were approved by city council Monday night.

In addition, Councilman Paul Hupf asked the city manager to submit a report on traffic conditions at the Elmwood-Southgate intersection.

Councilmen also asked for information from the state regarding plans for traffic signals at the Skyline-Westridge intersection. Hupf said signals would be inadequate because of the fog, and proposed instead an underpass. Petitions are being circulated to urge the underpass, Hupf said.

Yellow flashing lights will be installed at the intersection as a temporary measure, according to Otis Calhoun, director of public works.

High Bonds 'Steerers' Seek Help

The 17-member steering group of the Citizen's Bond Committee for the May 17 high school district election convened Monday night and outlined the avenues they'll follow in pushing the crucial issues.

Prime decision was setting aside the evening of Thursday, April 18, for a meeting to organize a full, district-wide Citizen's Committee.

Area chairman throughout the district will bring to the session key individuals from their respective communities to serve on the group's speakers, telephone and publicity committees.

The meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock in the superintendent's office, 375 South Mayfair, room 214.

No limit as yet has been set on the number of persons for the Bond Committee, but Superintendent Morgan urges "the more the better."

An estimated $1000 to $1500 will be needed to cover the group's publicity expenses. Each of the 17 steering unit members will contact prominent citizens to pay for advertisements on the bond and state aid issues.

A letter outlining the district's needs and urging residents to get behind the drive will be mailed out to approximately 5000 of the district's 25,000 registered voters, Morgan said. As required by law, all voters will be notified by mail on the times and places of the balloting.

The 5,000 voters getting letters are asked to "spread the word" to friends and neighbors on the importance of a successful outcome.

Morgan also presented the steering group with brochures containing 25 key questions and answers about the election. The "core" committee will use these in preparing publicity.

Steering committee chairman Peter J. Markovich designated an additional area chairman Monday evening. William A. Larsen, 880 North Mayfair, and candidate for the school board, will work with Bob Buchanan in the Broadmoor and Westlake areas, west of Junipero Serra.

'Record' Budget Tops Extra Meet Of High Trustees

Second review of the district's record-breaking 1957-58 budget and three other key issues will be subjects at a special meeting of Jefferson Union High School district trustees next Monday night.

Superintendent Edward D. Morgan's preliminary estimate on the budget, presented two weeks ago, was $2,262,599. This represents an increase of more than $400,000 over the 1956-57 outlay.

Morgan indicates the $2 million-plus figure probably will stand, since the district needs to stay on the $1.35 per $100 tax rate in order to operate.

Under present projections, taxpayers will actually pay less if the May 17 bond and state aid election issues are successful.

Also up for study Monday will be continued review of the district's administrative code, "thorough" examination of district's rules of discipline, and Principal Glen South's survey on pupil insurance.

Matter of teacher salaries and budget for coming year will be discussed at the April 22 regular meeting of the board, Morgan said.

Monday's special meet starts at 7 o'clock at 375 South Mayfair, room 214. Public is welcome.

Scout Spokesman Says His 'Thanks'

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

On behalf of the Lake Merced District committee of Boy Scouts of America, I wish to thank you for the publicity you have always afforded the Boy Scout program here in our own community. We all believe the outstanding support given to us by your fine newspapers has been a potent factor in the expansion of the Scouting program in our district.

Today our total membership is approximately 2000 boys and 700 volunteer adults. Nearly every religious, civic and fraternal organization in the community is a sponsor of one or more of our 65 Scout Troops, Packs and Posts.

Whilye we can all be proud of these past accomplishments, we must always look forward. To better serve our own boys and young men, we must continue to grow. With the continued support of your newspapers, we know our job will be just a bit easier. Again, thank you very much.

I would like to take this opportunity to compliment the voters of the Broadmoor Police district for the exceptional interest that was shown at the polls in the police commissioner election.

It is gratifying to see so many people exercise their privilege to express their vote.

My heartfelt thanks are extended to my many friends, without whose help my victory would not have been possible.

I pledge my utmost effort to continue to provide the ultimate in police protection as has existed in the past three years.

My victory was also your vote of confidence to our very fine police department as well as to the other members of the Board of Police Commissioners of which I am proud to be a member.

Army Officer Held For Pedestrian Death

A Westlake Army captain was held for manslaughter last weekend after his car struck and killed an 83-year-old San Francisco pedestrian.

Julien M. Theall, a patient at Laguna Honda home, was struck at Geary boulevard and 25th avenue.

Held for going 30 miles an hour in a 25-mile zone, in addition to manslaughter, was Captain George P. Leal, 35, of 124 Morningside drive. He is stationed at Fort Scott in the Presidio.

ONLY 10 APPLY FOR RED CROSS DISASTER FUNDS

Only ten applications for Red Cross disaster relief assistance have been filed to date with the San Mateo County Chapter by Daly City residents whose homes were damaged by the recent earthquake, according to Edward George, disaster chairman for the local chapter.

Applications for this aid which is an outright grant—gift of the American people—may still be made by those whose homes were damaged beyond their own ability to repair, officials said.

Mrs. Roy Lindauer, 1037 South Mayfair avenue, this week took polite exception to the Westlake Improvement association's $50,000 quake disaster fund campaign.

In a letter to the WIA, Mrs. Lindauer said she had already mailed a check to the Red Cross to be distributed to Westlake neighbors who had suffered damage and suggested that "Westlakers with a desire to help needy neighbors would do well to work through the organization set up to handle disasters and administer the money contributed."

April 18 has been set as "target date" for a house-to-house solicitation for funds to help earthquake-distressed Westlake residents.

Last week the association began recruiting a screening committee to designate families eligibility for the funds.

The association has explained that funds may be made available to families who might not be eligible under the Red Cross disaster program.

A citizens' committee of Daly City residents including Bob Watson, chairman, Julian Cohn, Denny Franco, Mrs. Hoke Garrison, and Mrs. Roy Lindauer, met Tuesday to review requests for aid and were to determine to what extent each family is entitled to assistance by the Red Cross. Meeting with them was Mrs. Barney Bristow, family service chairman for the disaster committee, who is in charge of the chapter's rehabilitation program in Daly City.

A majority of the cases are structural damage to the buildings which necessitate major repairs of some nature, it was reported.

The relief program received extensive discussion at a Red Cross board meeting this week and it was voted to send a letter to Casimir Norton, president of the Westlake Subdivisions Improvement association, to be read to the organization's board, offering any co-operation possible from the 75-year disaster experience of Red Cross, when the association conducts its forthcoming drive for $50,000 on April 18.

A letter to Joe Lewkowitz, Red Cross disaster representative in Daly City, from City Manager Howard Stites was read. It stated, "On behalf of the people of Daly City I should like to express our appreciation for the readiness of the Red Cross to take over the job of feeding, sheltering and clothing the needy should there have been the occasion during the recent earthquake. I am also familiar with the help which the Red Cross is granting to needy families in the city and wish you would pass on to the Red Cross our word of thanks."

In 1954 the average length of Fords, Chevrolets and Plymouths was 16 feet four inches, says the California State Automobile Association. This year it is 16 feet 10 inches.

Jackie Willard Wins Title Of 'Miss Pacifica'

"Toast of the Coast" is Miss Jackie Willard of Sharp Park, 16-year-old all-around junior at Westmoor High, who won the title of "Miss Pacifica" Saturday night at Miramar Hotel.

Pert Jackie, Westmoor student body president and a straight "A" scholar, grabbed the nod — for beauty and talent — over eight other Coast cuties. The selection earned the stunning blonde a $150 wardrobe, a glittering rhinestone crown, and the unprecedented honor to sport the Coastside banner in the "Miss San Mateo County" and possibly state contests.

Jackie's mom, Marie, who lives at 133 Salada avenue, was exuberant over the choice. And Westmoor principal Glenn South termed Miss Willard's conquest "a very deserving honor. He added, "Jackie is one of our best and a credit to the school."

Second place went to Westview's Georgia Smith, 375

JACKIE WILLARD

Heathcliff drive. She was presented a $75 war bond. Dazzling Donna Kaufman of Edgemar, 319 Bancroft, took third and a $25 bond. The latter is eyeing the "Miss Golden Gate" crown, with the California Packing Corporation as her backer.

Miss Willard, 34-22-34, combined looks and accordion playing to prevail over the classy field. Besides college, she intends to devote a lot of time to modeling.

Saturday's finale jammed the place, with more than 300 incorporation-bound residents on hand for the queen unveiling and dancing. The proceeds, some $303, brought the committee out of the "red" on overall expenses for three fund-raising dances. The first two affairs failed to produce enough revenue, according to Mrs. Joyce Christian, dance chairman and City committee plugger.

KITTY CATS COST CONTRACTOR KING-SIZE SETTLEMENT

San Francisco painting contractor Verne G. Reusch has an expensive pair of Siamese cats.

They cost him $84,750 as the result of an auto accident on Alemany boulevard in Westlake on November 13, 1954.

Reusch, 45, was driving along Alemany when his playful cats distracted him, causing him to cross the center line, striking another car head-on.

Driver of the other car, Domenic Lucchese, 45, of 1068½ Portola drive, settled for $46,000 for his injuries.

Last week Lucchese's passenger, Tamara Kutusoff, 44, of 45 Montecito avenue, settled out of court for $38,750 for her injuries, according to her attorney.

Reusch, fortunately, was covered by insurance. He still has his two cats.

Sonic Boom Steals Earthquake 'Thunder'

A jet airplane breaking the sound barrier over Daly City provided earthquakes with some competition Tuesday morning.

A distant boom, feeling like a cross between an explosion and an earthquake, jarred Daly City residents and set THE RECORD and police phones jingling.

The sonic boom followed on the heels of several more sharp, but harmless aftershocks from the March 22 earthquake.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

Having no resistance at all as far as spring weather is concerned, we have consequently let the vacuum cleaner gather dust, and have spent the days out on the front lawn in the sun, accompanied by stacks of paper, the typewriter and the phone. At this point, everything is sunburned. We have no conscience qualms, either, as evidence has shown that we have a great deal of company in the Villages, where nearly everyone else has been out on the front or back lawn, too.

Somehow, spring seems to bring a thriving crop of birthdays. We suppose it is because the nicer weather allows parties to be outdoors, thus saving wear and tear on houses and mothers! Getting in the birthday swing were Eleana and Roberto Delgado of Sweetwood, who were 6 and 5, espectively. Their birthdays were a couple of weeks apart, so their mother had one party halfway between, a nice solution. Guests included Christy Hill, Marilyn Hope, Patty Micelli, Drew Micelli, Rod and Mike Sinclair, Marilyn and Mark Hoffman, Carla, Danny and Scott Davies, Tommy and Joey Catalano, Bruce Watts, Pip Mattison, Clarita and Diane Lianes, Elita Arturo, Noel Camozzi, Johnny Blatchley, and Terry Dixon.

Up on Bradley, Cesar Molina reached the ripe old age of 9, and entertained his guests at a Spanish party. Young ones there having a good time were Randy Chernok, Cecilia and Jackie Murrish, Billy Miles, Jay, Clark and Ley Elliott, Dennis and Michael Deaver, Lyn, Butch and Micquette Magnusson, and Gary, Bobby and Patty Eassa.

Collector's Items

Members of Job's Daughters enthusing in a dreamy way over the formal dance at the St. Francis hotel . . . Wanda Milani's delight with her new washer and dryer set which will do everything but turn cartwheels. . . . The horsemen riding unconcernedly through the BF alley between Stewart street houses, over the paved area, and on to the old trestle. . . . The activity with hammer and saw on the Macklin house adding-on. . . . Small children all over the place in sunsuits and bare feet. . . . The wink-quick fingers of LeRoy Miller, who can change his accompaniments to suit any mood, movement or direction of the kaleidoscopic groups of youngsters to whom Dick Ford teaches creative dancing. . . . The various and sundry bits of equipment parents use to call children home with; a ship's bell serves the Raymond Johnsons, a bank alarm the Ash Helmers. We stick to the parade-ground bellow!

Mothers have been having parties too. Erna Schmidt of MacArthur gave a Tupperware party, with Stoneyford's Edith Maurer as demonstrator. Addie Mattison, Betty Nagy, Mrs. Erna Kurrle, Anna Jerosch, Doris Bernstein, Ruth Dallman, Joan Kraus, Betty Morales, Alice Alexander, Helga Brooks, Audrey Davies, Janice McDonald and Anita Giese came "for to admire and to see," and to buy, of course! From what we heard, it was a good party.

A spur of the moment jewelry party turned out well, too. The hostess was Phyllis Brown, and Mary Coppola, Wanda Milani, Pat Tannehill, Chloe Tannehill, and Mame Crowley all gathered at the drop of a hat in the Brown's Washington street living room to watch Miriam Peterson show some perfectly gorgeous pins, earrings, etc.

Diaper Set

Several new members have joined the Villages' diaper set recently, and the membership roster is showing a pretty good total so far this year. Carol and Jack Gerhardt of Louvaine contributed Jeanne Lynn, 6 lbs. 14 oz., to the delight of small brother Johnny, and Sally and Allen Aldrich of Beechwood were glad to add a first baby to the group. She is Cynthia Rose, 6 lbs. 3 oz. of something for parents to be proud of—and they are.

With 7 showing on her yearly calendar, Jerelyn Magnusson could do no less than have a party, so she proceeded to invite quite a crowd to her house on Bradley. There for the fun were Ley and Jay Elliott, Cesar Molina, Patty Eassa, Mary Jane Miles, Nina Cheda, Tharon Maurer, Greg Landucci, Butch Magnusson, and Jackie Murrish.

Another 7-year-old was Dennis Buell, marking another Louvaine event this week with a cowboy party. His birthday was really April 1, but there was nothing April fool about the good time he had with his guests the Saturday before. Enjoying the party were Gregory Florio, Linda Valens, Ronald Cherruti, Michael Buell, Gail Hixson, Dick Hammond, Lynn Schima, and special guests Mrs. Tina Bossi and Mrs. Pat Triplett. Mrs. Bossi is Dennis' godmother, and Mrs. Triplett is one of his very best friends. In addition to the cowboy cake, etc., there were movies, with much excitement when one reel went through upside down!

From 7 to 11 is a natural sequence, so we shall mention the 11th birthday party of Judy Fanfelle, who gathered her guests together at her home on MacArthur and took them in a body up to Jeff High, where they all went swimming. Then they came back to the house for refreshments, with appeties much sharpened by the swim, you can imagine! Sharing the fun were Dawn Klevesahl, Pamela Morgan, Charlotte Webb, Susan Ecker, Candy Dalzelle, Cathy Kramer, Jane Miller, Janice Garretson, and Pamela Hoyt. Baby sister Jane enjoyed the cake, but bowed out on the swimming part!

Around and About

We read in a SF evening paper that Carroll Lindsey, BF school's entry in the top list of favorite teachers, had received a number of ballots from cell block 7 in San Quentin, because the inmates appreciated what he is doing to help retarded children in his special classes. A nice compliment for a nice person.

We would like to express a most sincere word of sympathy for Garden Lane's Mike Orlich, whose mother died recently. Mike is the person who always has time to be nice to everyone's children, and who works full day after full day to see that programs of all sorts are carried out for the benefit of children of all ages, whether on the county level, or is the summer recreation program, or in his work in phys ed at Jeff High, or a dozen other different ways and places.

We hear that Rally Hirshberg's dryer caught fire last week, which is why there was so much repair activity going on in the Hirshberg garage on 87th when we walked by the other day.

No doubt people know that Sam Logan is the new Scoutmaster of Troop 259, but we would like to introduce the rest of the Logan family, lately moved to Sweetwood. There is wife Claire, and three young Logans—Sam Jr., who is almost 12, Douglas, 8½, and small sister Ila, 7½. Sam is a handy man with a pipe, being in the plumbing business, and has had a great deal of Scouting experience, coming here from Berkeley and the Mount Diablo council. We also found out that while he was a prisoner in a POW camp in Asia during WW II, he worked actively with any and all Scouts who were there with him.

Mildred Holman and Helen Stout co-hostessed a luncheon the other day at Helen's house for a group of friends. Enjoying the occasion, minus committees, pencils, children, sewing, and any other kind of thing which might mean work, were Julia Rued, Charlotte Spruiell, Sibine Fairbanks, Ferri Jacobson, Jane Whitehead, Doris Elliott, Jean Suenderman, and Lisa Moore.

Bouquets to an enterprising and kind-hearted group of little girls — Bets Heard, Phyllis Cohen and Eleanor Werner. They sold Koolade, and also some silly sayings on the order of "Thimk" and raised 85 cents in one afternoon. They then sent said 85 cents to the Easter Seals campaign to help crippled children.

'No Shop Talk' Meet Proves 'Real Dandy' At Colma K-6 School

The multi-use room at Colma K-6 School was the scene of a gay fete Friday night as teachers and parents got together for an informal party.

The K-6 faculty invited parents to the "no shop talk, let's get acquainted affair."

Fred Schweickhardt, school principal, reported the evening "a tremendous success." Parents enjoyed the display of children's art work, which featured the award-winning tile mosaic. Among activities most enjoyed by everyone were folk dancing, card games, and "old-fashion" conversation.

Mrs. Clara Klaisner, Mrs. Ann Rees and Miss Dubacher were responsible for refreshments and table settings, while Miss Lillian Pelicon served as decorator.

According to Schweickhardt, the response was so enthusiastic that "another party to be held late in May is being considered."

New Troop 259 Ready To Roll, Need More Boys!

Newly organized Boy Scout Troop 259 lacks only one ingredient to receive its charter, according to Scoutmaster Sam Logan, and that is three more boys.

The interested fathers to form a committee, and two of the five boys needed to start the troop on its way are on hand and ready, but charter requirements make the additional young members necessary.

There will be more than enough boys entering the troop from Cub Pack 259 in the fall, but Scoutmaster Logan is anxious to have the charter by the 15th of this month, so that the new group can participate in the Scout-O-Rama ticket sales, as well as in the county-wide Scouting event itself.

Boys interested in Scouting are more than welcome to join the troop, Logan said, whether or not they have had previous Cub Scout training. Troop 259, as well as the three-year-old Cub Pack 259, is sponsored by James L. Snell PTA. Interested boys or their parents may phone the institutional representative, DeWayne Peterson, at PL 6-0914, or Scoutmaster Logan at PL 5-9322, for further information.

W'lake-Olympia PTA Backs County Boys' Ranch Camp

Members of Westlake-Olympia PTA voted to support and endorse the idea of a boy's ranch camp in San Mateo county at their meeting last Thursday.

The county probation department, headed by Sid Cowgill, is seeking to establish this ranch for long-time care of teen-age delinquent boys. These are boys who are too great a risk to place back in the community on probation and yet not tough enough for the juvenile court to commit to a state correctional institution.

"The kind of camp we are thinking of would have a capacity of 56 to 60 boys, would care for them for six to nine months, and during that period of time they would be subject to a varied program," Cowgill stated.

A request to purchase 25 acres this year is being made to the board of supervisors for the establishment of such a boys' ranch camp. Cowgill asks that anyone or any organization believing in the idea to write to the chairman of the Board of Supervisors, in care of the courthouse, Redwood City.

Dr. Ruth Kokjer, chief psychologist of San Mateo schools, showed a film, "Children's Emotions," at last week's meeting. The film exhibited the major emotions of childhood, namely fear, anger, jealousy, curiosity and joy. It also pointed out what the parent can do to lessen fears and promote the child's happiness and natural development. Dr. Kokjer later answered specific problems put to her by parents.

Other important business of the evening was installation of new officers for the year 1957-58, headed by Mrs. Robert Cohn as president.

Holy Angels Gals Slate Luncheon, 'White Elephant'

At the April meeting of the Holy Angels Women's Guild, a beautiful color movie of the Mass was shown, with the narrative in English. The business meeting featured nomination of officers for the coming year.

On Wednesday, April 24, at 12:30 o'clock, a luncheon-is-served party plus a "white elephant" silent auction will be held. Tickets are $1 and may be obtained by calling Mrs. John Azevedo, PL 5-5238, or Mrs. Alfred Padreddi, PL 5-4474. Guild members are invited to bring their friends. Crockerites Report

FOURTH GRADE
MRS. HAWKINS

On March 14 we took a field trip to the frog pond in the Daly City hills. We caught many different things. We found frog eggs, three salamanders, one grasshopper, three caterpillars, one Praying Mantis, one bird's wing, some bark, pine needles and wild flowers.

We had a lot of fun. On the road we saw a man riding a horse. The horse was big and beautiful. On the way up the hill we followed the horse's shoe marks. His shoe marks were very deep, so they made it much easier to climb up the hill.

On the trip we saw many frogs. We did not catch any of them.

We had to cross and jump ditches. It was very hot up there, but we had a lot of fun.

By Linda Lake

FIFTH GRADE
MRS. McKEOWN

Just lately our class finished studying about soil conservation. We decided that we would like to learn more about soil conservation, so our teacher, Mrs. McKeown, wrote many things on the board so we could understand more clearly.

We learned that farmers should rotate their crops in order to preserve the land and that they should fertilize the soil to enrich the land. We learned that waste water causes soil erosion and washes the soil away and makes big gullies. Cover crops hold in the soil, besides keeping the water from washing away the soil, and keeps the wind flom blowing away the top soil.

We learned that farmers should not over-graze their land and we learned how to preserve our trees.

On Friday, March 29, our class had the pleasure of going on an excursion to the Lion's Youth Art Exhibit.

Our class is also taking a lot of interest in the study of insects. On the back wall of our classroom we have a display with various pictures of insects.

Recently all the fifth graders in Crocker school had a test in reading and work-skills. In the test they had various types of graphs. We became very interested in graphs. Our teacher even explained to us the United States budget by a graph.

We are always busy in art. We have just finished molding masks. We still have to paint and glaze them. We are also about to start a mural on burlap.

FOURTH GRADE
MRS. GARDNER

This week we have been writing letters to companies over the United States for information on the lumber industry, agriculture industry, oil industry, and to the manufacturers of machines used in these industries. Our unit of study is Modern California, and we are learning how important these industries are to our state. We hope that our letters will be answered.

Two of our classmates are leaving. Janis Gil is moving to Missouri, and Herbert Meneken to Linda Mar. We are going to miss them.

FIFTH GRADE
MRS. LEIBE

On March 27, Mrs. Leibe's class took a trip to the Planetarium, where we heard a lecture on the stars. It was interesting to see the star projector in operation. After our visit there, we ate our lunch in the band pavilion, then ended our day by going through the Japanese tea garden. Here we saw many pretty flowers and had fun climbing and walking over the bridges. It would be fun to take this trip again.

By Bobby Perry

Mrs. Leibe brought a box to school for our model solar system. Bob Burnes and John Williams are painting the inside of the box dark blue. Gary Ciolino is making the planet Jupiter. Diane Eastman and Shirley Ortega are making Saturn. Lee Ramirez is making Uranus. Eddie Larios is making Neptune. Martin Appleby is making Mercury. Denny Daley is making Earth. Judy Matison is making Mars. Pat Derrigan is making Pluto, and James Campbell is making Venus. We are making these out of newspapers covered with wheat paste. When they are dry and painted we will hang them in the box in their correct positions.

SUMMER honeymoon is in store for Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Frick, who exchanged vows March 10. The bride, formerly Miss Betty Lou Banfield of Daly City, is student at Jefferson High.

Betty Banfield Now Mrs. Benjamin Frick

Lutheran Church of Our Savior was the scene of a vow exchange on March 10 between Miss Betty Lou Banfield of Daly City and Benjamin Robert Frick of San Francisco.

Pastor Luther M. Schliesser Jr. officiated.

The new bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Banfield, 162 West Moltke street, will graduate this June from Jefferson High.

The benedict, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Frick, live at 385 South Ridge road, attended Mission High and Works as an apprentice mechanic.

Miss Banfield wore a ballerina-length, white chiffon dress with under layers of net and taffeta, and white satin shoes and pearls. She carried lily of the valley and orchids, and her net veil was shoulder length with pearl tiarra.

In the old-new-borrowed-blue department, Miss Banfield had a blue garter from her mother-in-law, then tossed a new blue garter to the gentlemen at the reception.

Betty Lou's sister, Darlene, was maid of honor. She was attired in a pale green taffetta ballerina length dress, with small hat and satin heels, both in green. She carried old-fashioned yellow carnations.

Donald Frick, the groom's brother, was best man. Benjamin's two close friends, Donald Anderson and Donald Dear, were ushers.

Approximately 160 guests attended the reception at Broadmoor community center. A three-tiered cake, sheet cake, champagne punch and sandwiches were featured.

The couple plan a belated honeymoon trip this summer. They will reside in San Francisco.

Blum Emcees Kick-off Drive For St. Martin's

With Frank Blum, city attorney of Daly City, as master of ceremonies, 120 members of St. Martin's Episcopal church convened Wednesday evening at Joe's of Westlake for a loyalty dinner to open their building fund campaign.

Blum is general chairman of a drive to raise sufficient funds during the coming week to erect a church building at Southgate avenue and Bradley drive before next fall. At present, services are held in Westlake auditorium and all other meetings in the vicarage, 94 Palmdale avenue.

Also seated at the speakers' table were D. R. Wainwright, chairman of canvassers; Mrs. Richard T. Phillips, hostess committee chairman; Mrs. Chester Mattison, building fund treasurer; Mrs. U. R. Kendree, arrangements committee chairman; and the Rev. Allen J. Downey, vicar of St. Martin's.

These and various other members of the congregation spoke on the challenge offered by the necessity to build this church and the benefits to be derived from sacrifices made to meet this challenge.

Men serving as canvassers met Monday evening for their final training session with E. L. Abbott, church financial advisor. Joining the group since its last meeting are D. W. Davis, Dr. Max Greenlee, George McKay, Seth Miller, B. G. Nagy, Gordon Raeside, Jr., Mervin Stang, George Strieff, Glenhall Taylor and Richard Verney.

Baby-sitting during the dinner was provided by the Young People's Fellowship, of which Gregory Waugh is president and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Brugge are advisors.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

If you enjoy opera and are a mite weary of endless hearings of "Boheme," "Traviata" and "Carmen," we suggest you attend "Venus and Adonis" and "Bluebeard's Castle," which the Creative Arts division of San Francisco State is presenting as its second annual opera.

You're going to have to hurry because the final performances will be this Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13, at 8:30 p.m. Incidentally, this is the first time that these two one-act operas have been performed in San Francisco, so it would be a shame if you missed them.

Few works given in one evening could be further removed in feeling than John Blow's "Masque for the Entertainment of the King," the king being England's Charles II (1682), and Bartok's psychological approach to the old fairy tale, composed shortly before World War I.

Bartok Satisfying

Possibly because it is closer to our time, we found Bartok's work more satisfying, although we wouldn't have missed seeing "Venus and Adonis," the "earliest example of true operatic writing in England."

The production of "Venus" was interesting, with a small musical ensemble on stage and the king and his courtiers sitting at one side, watching the performance taking place on an inner stage.

"Bluebeard" contains only two singing roles, which are handled by two sets of principals. We heard Jay Selby and Garifalia Eliopoulos, the latter remembered for her excellent work in last year's "Saint of Bleeker Street." The roles are demanding, and both Selby and Miss Eliopoulos rose to the occasion very well, with Selby doing some of the most beautiful singing of the evening.

Orchestra Tops

The orchestra plays an important role in "Bluebeard," and as a high fidelite would say, "The State college orchestra is full dimensional sound and then some."

We have seen several State college production and are always amazed at the high artistic level reached by these student performances. It is obvious that a great deal of thought and much hard work go into each production. And the ingenuity of their costume designers! However, the latter must do something—anything—about Adonis' helmet. Also, please adjust Miss Eliopoulos' crown. Crowns are being worn low this year, but not on the bridge of the nose.

'Scout-O-Rama' Tickets To Go On Sale Friday

This Friday, thousands of San Francisco Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers in neighborhoods throughout the city will launch their big ticket sales campaign for the 1957 Scout-O-Rama, to be held at the Cow Palace, May 3 and 4.

Theme of this year's show is "Scouting Around the World" to mark the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout movement and the 100th anniversary of the birth of its founder, Lord Baden-Powell. The international flavor will be reflected in many of the booth demonstrations and arena exhibits.

In addition to staging their giant show, the Scouts will sell their own tickets. At 7 p.m. this Friday, in ticket headquarters located in seven geographic Scout districts in the city, Scouts will pick up their tickets and start selling.

Ticket headquarters in the Lake Merced district will be Lyn Brooke's store in Stones' town, J. C. Penney company, 70 Westlake court, and Town & Country Shopping Center. William West, 256 Dorantes avenue, is Lake Merced district ticket chairman. Don Davis, Penney's manager, and Stan Herzstein, 43 Lake Forest drive, are vice chairmen.

Hundreds of valuable prizes ranging all the way from racing bicycles, portable radios and phonographs, U. S. Savings Bonds and even portable TV sets will be offered to the Scouts for selling tickets. In addition, their Packs, Troops and Posts receive cash commissions to provide them with funds the year around for handicraft supplies, various types of equipment and camping trips.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

The stately Peacock Court of the Mark Hopkins hotel formed a magnificient setting last week for the most important yearly event in San Francisco television—the annual awards banquet of the Northern California Academy of Television. This is local television's "night" — the evening when recognition is given stations and members for outstanding programs during the past year.

Following introductory remarks by Pesident James R. Eakins, an explanation was given on how the awards were arranged this year. A proposed awards structure was sent to members of the academy, and they were the only ones eligible to nominate a program and to vote for the awards. Twelve achievement awards were given, with station KPIX winning seven of the twelve.

New Moguls

A new board of directors also was selected to lead the organization next year, and Florence Dieves, production director at Palmer Films, was elected president. We thought our readers would be interested in the organization's plans for the coming year, so we went down to see Florence for a first-hand report.

She told us the primary function of the academy is for the advancement of local television. Members are people directly related to the industry, which includes talent, station personnel, management, film companies who produce television films, and others who are interested in television. Members are not only from the Bay area, but other northern California cities including Sacramento, Stockton, Lodi and Modesto. The organization is national, and the local branch plans soon to become an affiliate of the national organization.

The academy has other activities during the year for both membership and the general public. Last year, they organized a workshop so that members would have an opportunity to learn all phases of television. This month, in cooperation with the Oakland public library, they are conducting panel discussions with guest experts on various television subjects, and the public is invited.

Public's Chance

Also, Florence said this year she hopes to set up some sort of mailing service where viewers can write in questions and criticisms concerning television, and the academy will answer them. This should prove to be a fine service for viewers. As Florence emphatically stated, she hopes "the academy will continue to work for the advancement of local television—the medium, not the individual."

We feel strongly that local television has an important place in San Francisco and that it deserves the support and interest of everyone.

Board Cites Students For 'Quake' Calmness

"Earthquake Day" conduct by Jefferson and Westmoor High school students earned them special praise last week from district superintendent Edward D. Morgan and the board of trustees.

Morgan and the board sent letters of congratulation to both student bodies for publication in the "Totem Pole" and "Rampage," student newspapers.

The superintendent's message, in part, read: "The day (March 22) was one to try the nerves of all, and the adult manner in which our student bodies acted brought credit to all."

The Council of the City of Daly City hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sub-sections, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

B'MOOR 'S NITE'

Nitty Burglar Stumps Cop, Gets $1500 Haul

Cash and property values at $1500 were lost by a Broadmoor couple last weekend in a highly-polished burglary that has police stumped.

Sometime between Friday and Sunday afternoon the accomplished raider entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben MacDonald, 919 Bradley drive, and quietly escaped with the loot, which included combination to the safe at U. S. Slicing Machine Co., where MacDonald works as zone manager.

On arriving home Sunday the MacDonalds found the house completely ransacked, but no evidence of forced entry could be found. Broadmoor police chief Ray Savage said the intruder may have gained entrance through an unlocked kitchen window in what appeared to have been a daylight raid.

Missing were a sewing machine, movie projector, two watches, cancelled checks, several rings and miscellaneous jewelery, children's piggy banks and MacDonald's wallet, containing a $50 bill, a round-trip plane ticket to Oregon and the combination to the firm's safe.

Police have contacted San Francisco authorities to keep close surveillance over the office at 989 Howard where the safe is located.

Savage said he had no fingerprints and had established no pattern of operation. "It was a very smooth job," Savage commented.

Most of the MacDonald's losses were covered by insurance.

Scrappy B'moor B's Cop Fifth Straight Behind Howell, 22-0

Matching their big brother A's, Broadmoor's B softballers kept their perfect record intact Saturday with a 22-0 earthquake decision over the Lakeside Cubs at Aptos diamond.

Wayne Howell did the handcuffing from the hill, yielding only 2 hits. His fast ball sent 13 to the bench via the strikeout route. Only three walks marred his control.

Four-for-five off the bat of Jack Crofton, including a homer, was the beef in the B'moor assault. Dick Crofton made it a family affair by smashing a bases-loaded roundtripper in the fourth.

Jim Manning and Howell padded their averages with three hits each.

Broadmoor is the only unstopped team in the western division of the loop. With five games gone and two to go, they appear a cinch for the title.

Daly City Soccer Lads Share Second, Meet SSFers Next

Moving into a tie for second, thanks to a forfeit win over the San Bruno Aces last week, Daly City's elementary shinkickers host the "same-record" Hillside squad of South City this Saturday morning at Westlake park. Game begins at 10 o'clock.

The locals, mostly Westlake youths, dropped their Peninsula league opener to the front-running San Bruno Dueces, then came back two weeks ago to thump Spruce of SSF, 8-0.

Saturday's game is a "crossroads" one for the home team. A win would put them right in the thick of the race.

Ron Johnson Flings No-Hit, 10-0 Rout For Broadmoor Club

Fanning 16 en route, chucker Ron Johnson authored a no-hit, 10-0 job for the Broadmoor A's Saturday over St. Emydius to give them their sixth straight win in the West O' Twin Peaks league.

Roaring Ron allowed but two walks as he registered the near-perfect decision. His mates, meanwhile, managed 9 hits against a "strong headwind."

Three B'moor batters got two safeties apiece. They were Alan Contreras (one double), John Vocke and Larry Skinner. Bruce Hix, Dave Mahoney, Dan Dempsey and Jim Fisher added singles.

The losers, incidentally, were unconquered going into the clash.

This Saturday, the defending champs meet the lone other unbeaten loop team, Westlake's 248 boys, at Westlake Park, 12 noon.

Leveroni Sails Tribe Toward Pennant!

Eddie Stuns South City, Bearcat 9's

Two prep masterpieces by righthander Eddie Leveroni have established Jefferson's varsity baseball squad as THE team to beat in the North PAL today — even though the Indians are in a three-way tie for second place.

South City sits on top the circuit by half a game, but Tribe chief Steve Mezzera isn't nervous. In the past week his boys have shown him they've got what it takes to nab the flag.

Good Reasons

Leveroni and company are the scuttlebutt of the loop. No wonder. Last Friday, Easy Eddie shocked the odds-on Warriors from over the hill with a 4-hit, 3-0 surprise. And Tuesday down south, the rejuvenated Tribe knocked off San Mateo, 3-1, this time with Leveroni blazing for a 2-hitter.

Jeff's opening game loss to Carlmont is out the window. The Daly City kids are on their way. The row to hoe is rough, but Mezzera's got that gleam.

This Friday the Tribe draws a bye, waiting for the three other contenders to jockey for positions. South City is 3-1, Jeff is bunched with Carlmont and Hillsdale, each with 2-1 marks.

Invitational Next

Next week Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, Jeff goes in the no-count South City Invitational. Their first foe in the elimination affair is defending titlist Sacred Heart.

The Tribe may not win the Invitational, but won't be worse off for wear. Mezzera welcomes the opportunity to give his pitching corps needed experience. From it, he hopes to sharpen the tossers behind Leveroni.

Although it appears his destiny, Eddie may not have to shoulder Jeff's hurling chore in the league. Jim Wilson and Paul Tapia, two comers, are getting better. Both are first sackers, and Wilson also can handle an outfield slot.

Leveroni will start in the Invitational, with Wilson and Tapia following in that order. On Tuesday, April 23, the Indians play Santa Rosa High in an exhibition at Marchbanks. Loop action resumes April 26 at Hillsdale.

Storybook Job

Now back to Leveroni. Eddie, who leads the loop in strikeouts with 23, literally scuttled the Warriors. His single in the sixth brought in 2 of Jeff's 3 runs in the frame.

Not one Warrior reached third in that one. Gil Ullery, SC shortstop, got 3 hits off Leveroni. His mates went down meekly.

Outfielders Tom Cloutier and Wilson were the only other Indians to manage singles.

Leveroni got loads of lumber and top backing Tuesday as he whittled San Mateo. The Indians rapped 8 hits, Ino Patron and Barry Haanen each with a pair.

Jeff prevailed 3-0 going into the bottom of the seventh, but the Bearcats got a rally going with two outs to go after a single, annd an error by Patron.

Snuff Rally

With runners on first and third, next batter slashed a single to bring in the run. Patron saved face on the next play. He fielded a grounder, tossed to Wilson at first for the second out, and then catcher Bill Strassburger made a great play on Wilson's throw to nail the runner at the plate.

Shortstop Mike Wedlake and Strassburger, Jeff's best hitters in all games, collected singles. Mike and Bill are .400-plus for the season. Counting practice games, Mezzera's club stands 4-4.

FOURSOME of (left to right) George Bullwinkel, Dave Calloway, Felix Valdez and Andy Estigoy gave Jeff a third-place finish Saturday in two-mile event at eighth annual El Cerrito Relays. Tribe quartet finished behind Hayward and Pittsburg. George and Dave are Jeff's one-two punch in 880, while soph Felix and Andy do likewise in the varsity mile. Each is a mainstay for Coach Bob Watt. RAM SPIKES TWO-TIME JEFF; MARTINEZ ROARS 10-FLAT 100

Embarrassed by Westmoor last week, Jeff's track and fielders strode back gamely Tuesday against Carlmont, triumphing only in the C's division.

Swift Sonny Martinez bulged eyes in the varsity go, won by the Scots, 57-56, as the Jeff junior rocketed to a 10-flat hundred and a :22.3 in the 220.

Sonny's time pulled him astride Hillsdale's Wayne Wallick for century time. Both have covered the sprint with wind-assists. Coach Bob Watt figures Martinez will prevail in the All-PAL showdown.

Turning Point

Carlmont's two-three finish in the discuss spelled defeat for the Daly City legions. Indian Jim Farley won it with a 120-11 heave. They husky lad also grabbed the shot, barreling the ball 47-6½, not his best but keeping him a consistent winner.

Soph Len Lamendola turned in a 53.1 quarter mile for Watt, the budding champ's fastest to date. Teammates Dan Miceli and Whitney gave him the impetus, taking second and third.

Andy Estigoy toured the 880 in 2:07.8 to lead Jeff's 1-2-3 effort. Dave Calloway was next, then George Bullwinkel.

Vaulter Jeff Chase climbed 11-8 for a first. He tied for third in the El Cerrito relays Saturday, scaling 12 even. San Mateo's Bob Kile and Burlingame's Kimmell have bettered Chase, but Watt thinks Jeff may give them trouble in the future.

Sonny Again

Martinez anchored the relay win over the Scots, copped easily. He was teamed with Lamendola, Miceli and Calloway. Time: 1:35.5.

The Scot B's won, 60-46, but the Tribe C's made their mark 3-2 with a 45-26 decision. Watt's varsity is 2-3, the B's 1-4.

First placers for Jeff's B's were: Rog Stahl, 70 hurdles; Jim Sailor, 39 flat in 330; Carl Mecchi, 42-10 (school record) in shot; Art Banos, 17-3 high jump, and Butler, 9 foot pole vault.

For the C's, Howard Harton breezed to first in the 75 and 150 dashes in 8.7 and 16.5, respectively.

Gordy Tydingco rolled again in the high jump (he's best in league with a 5-2¾. His tops is 5-3. Gordy also sailed for second in the 120 lows behind pal Harvey Marsten. Harvey hurried for a 15.3 clocking.

Warriors Next

This Friday the Jeffs wrap dual meets up against South City there. Next Tuesday comes Poly in Kezar.

Last Thursday, Watt's rompers drubbed Westmoor's varsity, 103-10. The Ram B's won out, 64½-48½, and the Jeff C's fell, 39⅓-37 2/3.

Publicity-shy Ernie Ribera, Ram coach was not available for comment.

The Indians compiled 2½ points in the El Cerrito spectacle. Men of note were Chase in the vault, and the 2-mile relay unit, which got up for a third.

W'moor Nine Breaks Loose: Slaps Poly, W'ington Clubs

Westmoor's Dutch Meyer busted buttons all over the place Tuesday as his Ram baseballers pushed across two runs in the ninth inning to tame Washington High's jayvees, 9-7.

The win, second straight for the locals and moving them to 4-3 for the season, was one satisfaction. But the way the Rams accomplished it convinced the Dutchman his kids have got the game's key asset —the comeback kick.

Mike "The Bronc" Mullen iced the win for reliefer Dave Simmons by blasting a two-run double in the extra-inning dandy at Marchbanks. The blow jolted across Gary Pederson and Sid Swanson and rewarded Simmons for a fine stint.

West Hurt

Coming in for starter Carby West in the second, Dave bore down and wound up with 14 strikeouts. Carby, number two Ram pitcher, tripped en route to first early in the tilt and went out with a sprained hand.

Westmoor batsmen clouted 14 hits, many for extra bases. Mullen had 3 for 4, Bob Roller 3 for 5 (double and triple), and Pederson and Swanson, two apiece.

Swanson accounted for 5 of the Rams' 10 stolen bases.

Westmoor overcame a 4-run deficit in the first with 2 runs, got another in the second, then tied it 4-all in the fourth. The enemy went ahead, 7-5, but the Rams climbed back to 7-up in the seventh.

Last Thursday, Westmoor tripped Poly High's jayvees, 4-3, as West fashioned a 6-hitter in eight innings. Carby's 3 for 4 with the stick helped no end.

This Thursday the Rams attempted to hike their win streak against SF State's jayvees at Marchbanks. Next week they rest on their cars during Easter vacation.

Venturi Pockets 13th In Masters, 'Plenty Of Time'

Well, anyway, Westlake's Ken Venturi still has lots of years to reach his goal!

The Daly City golfer, who lives at 97 Forest Grove drive, had this consolation today after finishing 13th in the Masters tourney Sunday in Augusta, Georgia.

Playing in his third Masters against the world's greatest, Ken shot a 294, earning him $853 and a natural invite to the same shindig next year.

In 1956, you recall, Venturi finished second to top amateur Jackie Burke. A bad afternoon on the final day was costly for Ken in that one. Sunday, however, the Westlaker, debuting as a pro in the meet, blazed on the final day. He roared to a two-under-par 70, his first sub par figures in the affair. Venturi had a 150 going into the last two rounds. His third day tally was 76.

Next for Ken is the Colonial Invitational in Fort Worth in April. He then goes after the U. S. Open title.

The localite bears close watching. He's dynamite, and WILL be the best in the business in days to come.

Lodge S'ballers Blank Shoppers On 5 Hits, 2-0

Tom Kitchen spun a five-hitter Sunday to give Westlake Lodge a 2-0 shutout over pace-setting Shopping Center in the Westlake Sofeball League.

The whitewash left the Shoppers on top by one game and tied second place in a three-team knot.

Frank Monte's Richfield nine lost ground on the heels of a 7-4 loss to Our Lady Of Mercy's men. And Val's Redwood Roomers inched closer to the front with an 11-3 job over cellar-dwelling W'lake Joe's.

The Lodgers got six hits off Bill Boyd in the key tilt of the afternoon. C. Matucci yielded only three safeties for the parishioners against the gas house gang. Nine Richfield men got on base via walks in that one, but rallies were few and far between.

This Sunday's action sends the Lodge against Joe's at 11, Val's and OLM at 1 o'clock, and Richfield and the Shoppers in the finale at 3.

Pedromen Almost 'Cinch'

Only a "Goliath" effort — a clean sweep — will keep San Pedro Lunch's sizzling keglers from taking the 1957 Daly City - Colma title next Tuesday night at Brentwood Bowl.

That's the prospect as the macaroni men meet second place Brisbane Market in a pip of a showdown.

Both squads scored whitewashes this week in the preview to their "destiny" clash, while McGahey & Olson, which led most of the season, was eliminated in losing two out of three to Towne House.

Two Game Edge

San Pedro, jolting Plaza Furniture in three, has a two-game edge over the hillsiders with a 56-31 record. Brisbane's hustlers, 54-33, socked Edisco Tuesday night.

O. Schram and Dehl Fell led the Lunchmen's conquest, with 579 and 544 series, respectively. Schram's came on 235-154-190. Fehl posted 191-172-181.

W. King pepped the Brisbaners. He got a 627 series and top singles for the night with a 265 second roll. Other guns for the out-of-towners were W. Strassburger, 539, and R. Wright, 534.

Vince Merlo was hotter than a jumping bean in pacing Vince & Fred to a rout over Bank of America. The pub keeper streaked to a "colossal" 668 series, way above the rest of the field. Vince's games were 205-217-246. Ernie Cool was next with 191-179-198 for a 568. Dom Lenzini's 517 (156-183-178) also helped them along.

Santos Paces

Towne House stayed in fourth place with a split against M & O. Leading the verdict was Tony Santos. He got a 595 on 200-215-180.

Another good performance was W. Kearney's 557 in sparkling Westlake Homes past Carlo's Pizzeria, 2-1. Kearney had 162-216-179.

Other 2-1 victors were Donnellan Realty over DC Cleaners, Paul's Flowers over Luce Meats, and Carmona Chemical over Thur Meats.

Brentwood will be packed as never before next Tuesday. And sweat will be cascading all over the joint.

Crazy 'Trotters, Collegians Clash On 'Civic' Court

Basketball's most colorful spectacular, the annual College All-Stars versus Harlem Globetrotters series, rolls into San Francisco's Civic auditorium this Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Hooping towards the midway mark of the eighth annual coast-to-coast classic is a select lineup of cage aces from the nation's leading colleges and the "varsity" from the famous Trotters' extensive chain of laugh provoking show teams.

As predicted by owner-coach Abe Saperstein, the Harlemites are not only winning, but strutting their laughable antics during the current coast-to-coast series. From the moment the Trotters stage their world famous "Sweet Georgia Brown" warm-up routine the laughs are on. Hillard's dribbling wizardry, Lemons' laugh-a-minute bag of tricks, and the wizards' unbelievable ball handling and sleight-o-hand are stopping the show in every town.

All this plus an international presentation featuring top variety artists from seven different countries, including England's Elvis Pressley, Lonnie Donegan. His greatest recording success, "Rock Island Line," has passed the million mark in sales in both United States and Great Britain. Donegan and his "Skiffle Group" broke records on the British variety stage.

Also billed on the show are Benny Schirtzinger, national champion baton twirler; speed-demon Mexican juggler Rudy Cardenas; the Farais trio, hand balancers and roly poly artists; and last year's series smash hit, the team of Rolando and Lilly Yokoi, a duo of hand balancers and trick cyclists. Tickets for the unique attraction are on sale at the Crane box office, 245 Powell street, San Francisco.

DC DRUG NINE CLOBBER OLPH HOPEFULS, 13-4

Mike O'Leary's three triples, Skipper Crudo's homer, three safeties by Terry Christman, and two by Georgie Claus were the clinchers Saturday as the white-hot Daly City Drug nine dumped the OLPH baseballers, 13-4.

The Creighton-Krohn lads, sponsored by Tom Bournellis, held the church kids scoreless in all but one frame when a pair of walks, an error, a two-bagger by Lycett, and single by Virgilio resulted in four runs in the fifth.

Christman held OLPH to 5 hits in 5 innings, and Billy Ludwigsen fanned 2 and got another on a fly to set them down in order in the sixth. He walked one in the ninth and gave up a hit, but a run-down between first and second killed the threat.

The Druggists erupted for 7 tallies in the sixth. Bill Hynes led off and got on via an error. Barry Krohn, Mike Rovai and Christman followed with singles, then O'Leary's third triple cleared the sacks. Claus followed with a single, and cake-walked home on Crudo's round-tripper.

Hix singled in the fourth and tallied after Mike Wall sacrificed him along. Billy Kane and Mike Lanthier shared rightfield duties.

Bournellis' boys trek to Mill Valley this Saturday for a go with the Lions club at Tamalpais High. The locals return to Marchbanks Sunday morning at 11 to test Moar's cafeteria.

SPILLS FAIL TO DAUNT ANGILLEY IN BOAT RACES

Daly City's Ward Angilley, national speedboat champ, overcame eleventh-hour handicaps Sunday to win the plaudits of more than 35,000 onlookers at the seventh annual Lake Merced Regatta.

Angilley, a come-through artist, swept two events to dominate the classic sponsored by the Mariposa Boat club on its 25th birthday. Ward throttled to victory in the five-mile C Racing Hydro event (65 miles-per-hour) and the C Service Hydro race (52 m.p.h.).

His triumphs were remarkable—considering he damaged his craft on a test run the afternoon before when he flipped over while going 60-plus m.p.h. and got a dunking. The deck's fabric and supports were torn by the impact, causing Angilley to do some hurried patchwork to ready the boat for action Sunday. Ward repaired the damage by using a bad sheet and shellac, no less.

The afternoon was full of expected thrills and spills. Ten drivers, in all, suffered mishaps, but no serious hurts were reported.

150 Persons Cite Colma Rec Needs: 'Supervised' Sports

Results of the recent questionnaire to determine Colma recreation needs for children in the 9-14 age group were announced today by directors of the Colma community center.

Over 150 questionnaires were returned and processed by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Andries, Major Hall, Fred Schweickhardt, and Mrs. M. Pauline Brown.

Mrs. Brown, chairman of the board of directors, reports: "The answers indicate a definite need for more supervised recreation in the area between Mission street and Junipero Serra boulevard.

"Many activities were suggested by parents, but supervised sports was by far the most popular choice," she continued. "We plan to contact all respondents in order to be in the position to make specific plans for the near future."

Goodwin Sparks Ram Frosh-Sophs

Butted for their third straight North PAL setback Friday by South City, Westmoor High's Frosh-Sophs cracked the win column Tuesday with a 4-3 nod over San Mateo at Jeff.

Four runs in their third was all the Rams needed. The rally put Byron Van Alstyne's club ahead to stay, 4-2. SC's final run came in the next frame.

Bob Goodwin got the win, spreading 5 hits over 7 innings. He whiffed 5 and walked one.

The Rams muscled 6 hits, with all the damage coming in the third. Jim Heick's 2 for 3 included a walloping triple and double. Lead-offer Rich Greenwood unloaded a pair of singles.

Shortstop Paul Hanley's single with the bases loaded and Heick's three-bagger keyed the big frame. Catcher Ed Walthard also went for extra bases with a double. He was thrown out, however, trying to stretch it.

Mickey Corso had too much for the Rams Friday. He turned them back, 8-1, on 2 hits. The Warriors blasted Dick Reese for 10 safeties, 3 of them doubles, and 2 triples. The visitors got 3 in the first and seventh and 2 in the fifth.

Westmoor's run came in the second. Walthard scored it on a fielder's choice with a ball hit by Fosberry. The Ram catcher had got on via a single, then stole second and third.

Arts & Crafts Slate 'Open' In Westlake

The newly-organized Arts and Crafts program at Westlake Park is under way, and attendance is increasing with every session, today reported Dee R. Van Nest, city director of parks and recreation.

The instruction, open to all children, is held on Wednesdays at 4 p.m.

A tetherball tourney will be conducted during Easter vacation. All children should sign up with Michael Sibitz, park recreation leader.

Yes, Coach, Those Errors Really Hurt!

In a "genuine" pitchers' duel, Cub Pack 248 B's were outlucked last weekend by the Cub Pack 108 softballers, 31-13.

The winners led in base hits, 35-20. (Editor's note: Honest!)

Baker was the big blaster for the B's, rapping 4 for 4. Buddies Buekers, Horn and Bush each stroked 3 for 4. And hurler Solari's triple was the lengthiest drive of the afternoon.

"The errors really hurt us," was assistant Cubmaster R. Davis' conservative comment.

Brisbane Rec Center

Heavy winds early this week brought minor damages to the TV antenna and roof at Brisbane recreation center, director Clarence Laird reported.

The center will be closed on Good Friday.

Pete Garcia Rips Homer As Indian JV's Win Out, 5-2

Pete Garcia's three-run homer in the last inning shot Jeff High's jayvee baseballers to a 5-2 win over Westmoor's Frosh-Sophs Tuesday at Jeff.

Garcia's poke meant defeat for righthander Phil Fair. The Ram twirler surrendered 6 hits all told.

Victory was the second in 3 games for the Jeff reserves. The Rams are 1-4.

Westmoor's Soph-Frosh subs were slated to meet the SF State Frosh Wednesday at Marchbanks.

Win-Craved Swimmers Eye 'Trails'

Don't let Jeff's winless record in North PAL swimming competition fool you, folks!

Take it from boss Jumping Joe McGrath, his Injuns will be heard from once the North PAL trials roll around—April 25 at Capuchino. True, the three Jeff squads have yet to post a dual meet victory. But McGrath has several aces in his well-worn deck.

Last Thursday's three-division loss to San Mateo in the Bearcat water hole didn't change Joe's mind. Jeff's contingents aren't jelling teamwise. But a few boys could go far in the all-loop finale. Joe has a palmful of good ones.

Standouts

To name his best: varsity mermen Phil DeLucchi, Bill Magee, and possibly Rich Erickson, plus Fred Howard and Jim Ahern of the B's and Rich Curry on the C's.

DeLucchi is the best of the strong-lungers. He has lost only once—to Carlmont's Jack Crawford—in the grueling 100-yard breaststroke. And Phil is a good bet to notch the league crown for his other specialty, the 150-yard individual medley.

McGrath figures DeLucchi's duel with Crawford will feature the trials. Phil nabbed both events easily against SM. On the shorter haul he hit 1:11.8, and the 150-yarder he cruised in 1:16.8.

San Mateo took the varsity test, 50-25, the B's 50½-15½, and the C's, 34-16.

A Sweep

Magee and Erickson were one-two in diving.

For the B's, Howard got second in the 100 breaststroke, while Ahern took third in the 50 backstroke. Both can do better.

Tafoya was the lone first-placer for the C's. He showed his heels in the 50 backstroke, clocked at :37.7. Curry failed to show.

This Thursday the Jeffs wind up dual meet action at South City. Then come the trials, April 25-26, with the finals on May 3, all at Capuchino.

Free Archery Lessons For Kids Offered Here

A new archery program for boys and girls between the ages of 7 and 14 was announced today by Dee R. Van Nest, city director of parks and recreation.

The classes, designed for youngsters who have little or no experience in archery, will be held on Saturday mornings, from 9 to 12, beginning April 13, at War Memorial building, located on Mission street and Hillside boulevard (between Vista Grande avenue and Alp street).

Competent instructors will be on hand to provide instruction on the fundamentals of the sport and care of its equipment.

Due to space limitations, all children will be required to register for the classes with the department of parks and recreation.

Two groups will be established, Van Nest revealed. Children 7 to 11 will be tutored from 9 to 10:15, with the 12-to-14-year-olds scheduled thereafter.

Signups may be made by calling PL 5-0850, extension 18, or by coming in person to the office at 144 Hillside boulevard.

Children who have archery equipment are asked to bring it. There is no charge for the instruction.
